

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Inductive Grammar Chart
(Unit 7, page 52)

GRAMMAR. The simple present tense: spelling rules with he, she, and it

Look at these examples of verbs with he, she, and it

He gets up at 6:30.

He shaves in the morning.

Mark combs his hair.

She brushes her teeth.

He watches TV.

Sara does her homework.

He goes to bed.

She has lunch at noon.

He studies English.

It has three bedrooms.

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Write -es or -s in the blank to complete these spelling rules for the simple present tense with he, she, and it.

1. For most verbs such as get and shave, add _____.
2. For verbs that end in -ch / tch, -s, -sh, -x, or -z, add _____.
3. For verbs that end in a consonant + y, change the y to _____ and add _____.

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Give the third-person singular (he, she, or it) forms of these verbs:

1. do _____
2. go _____
3. have _____